

Quality Policy

The Company aims to provide superior Ship Management services to its clients by ensuring the vessels are operated without any injuries, without any harm to the property and environment. In addition Company's aims are to maximize its client's profitability by competitive management of the vessels, minimizing loss and safeguarding their reputation by robust risk management frame work.

The superior services are achieved from the commitment from the senior management and effectiveness of the system through continuous improvement process. The top management shall ensure the policies and objectives are reviewed for continuing suitability

Authorized By:

Management

Campbell Shipping Company Limited

Date: 3rd June 2015

Pol; 002